Richmond Investor Group Boxwood Acquires Robious Sports & Fitness from CJW Medical Center

New owners committed to investing additional resources to provide current and future members the finest health and fitness center experience in the Richmond market.

RICHMOND, VA (September 14, 2009) — Boxwood is pleased to announce the acquisition of Robious Sports & Fitness from CJW Medical Center. The acquisition of the business and the related real estate was made through two newly-formed companies, Boxwood RSF, LLC and Boxwood RSF RE, LLC. First Market Bank provided the debt financing for the transaction. Terms were not disclosed.

With more than 6,500 active families and individual members, Robious Sports & Fitness (www.robious.com), has been in operation for nearly 20 years at its current location and has been recognized as a Top 100 Fitness and Wellness Center four times during the past ten years (2001, 2002, 2003, and 2007) out of the more than 19,000 facilities across America. Encompassing nearly 11 acres and 70,000 square feet of space in the Richmond suburb of Midlothian, the club offers indoor and outdoor tennis, group exercise and fitness classes, personal training, cardio training, basketball and racquetball court sports, child minding, indoor aquatics, and a very popular outdoor pool and water park.

“We are looking forward to working with Boxwood on further investment in our facility,” said Ward Hamilton, General Manager of Robious Sports & Fitness; “they are very committed to ensuring that Robious stays ahead of the curve while providing our members a state-of-the-art facility and high quality staff.” The current management and staff will remain in place and continue to operate the business.

Patrick Galleher, Chairman of the Boxwood RSF entities, remarked, “We became impressed with the facility and dedicated staff as we evaluated the opportunity. It has tremendous potential. Working with Ward Hamilton, we have identified several exciting opportunities, and will be investing additional money and resources to provide our members a truly great experience.”

Bobby Morris, President of the Boxwood RSF entities, added, “We all live and work in the area, and have a vested interest in making Robious a special place. The club has been recognized as an industry leader, and we expect to build upon that tradition and really differentiate Robious within the local sports and fitness market.”
